

200th Anniversary

First Commissioning of Foreign Missionaries

In 1629, the first Congregational Church in America was gathered in Salem, MA.

On Feb. 6, 1812 the Tabernacle Church of Salem (UCC) ordained and commissioned missionaries to serve in foreign countries.

Rev. Dr. Tom Richard, Executive Secretary has been invited to bring greetings from the National Association of Congregational Christian Churches to the celebration service on February 5, 2012.

Rev. Liz Walker, former anchor at Channel 4 Boston, will be the keynote speaker.
